State Line Elementary School is located in New Pine Creek, on the border of California and Oregon. New Pine Creek is a rural town of approximately 250 people, and the main industry is farming and ranching. Since 2010-2011, State Line Elementary School provides education for grades kindergarten through five in the Modoc Joint Unified School District. It serves children from the communities of Davis Creek, Willow Ranch, and New Pine Creek. An interstate agreement with Lake County, Oregon also allows Oregon students to attend our school. Our low student-teacher ratio creates opportunities for giving students extra help or more academic challenges. We use peer tutors and have a weekly Little Buddy/Big Buddy activity. Students enjoy annual outdoor education experiences through field trips to the coast, high desert, and science museums. We are able to provide instruction for students in an exceptional environment. The multipurpose building has space for our school library, and hosts activities in the visual and performing arts. State Line Elementary School's annual plan and some budget approvals are made by our School Site Council. An active PTO raises funds for activities and field trips. We inform parents of upcoming school events and invite them to participate in school activities, chaperone field trips, and volunteer in classrooms. Parents may communicate with teachers by email, telephone, or visits. Student progress may be monitored through the district-wide AERIES program. Please call Brian Norby at 530 233 7201 to volunteer.
